This can not be done as part of a going bankruptcy for the exact same reason a going bankruptcy would not be able to be used as the reason for the imposer of a forced sale. When filing a going bankruptcy, you would certainly state the going bankruptcy as the reason for the imposer of a forced sale. Your lawyer would certainly have to utilize the "cash for assets" laws to the most beneficial of your benefit, but you would certainly currently be in possession of the residence, and would not have to leave the residence in the middle of a going bankruptcy. As well as you have actually even more space for other people than you would certainly have if you left the residence while in a going bankruptcy. I have actually been through a prior declaring of a going bankruptcy in the past, however I never ever had to leave the home. It was a real annoyance, and it would have been much better to leave the residence while in a going bankruptcy. Gravestone 82157476af
